Request For Special Temporary
Authority To Remain Silent

Dear Ms. Nelson:

This letter concerns the request, filed on May 6, 2010, on behalf of Diamond Broadcasting ("Diamond"), for Special Temporary Authority to permit AM station KRJY to remain silent.

Diamond's request states that KRJY(AM) went silent on May 6, 2010, due to the loss of the station's transmitter site. Diamond's request includes the appropriate certification regarding Section 5301 of the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.[1]

Diamond's request will be granted. Accordingly, Special Temporary Authority is granted to permit Station KRJY(AM) to remain silent not to exceed 180 days from the date of this letter. Notwithstanding the grant of this special temporary authority, the broadcast license for KRJY(AM) will automatically expire as a matter of law if broadcast operations do not commence by 12:01 a.m., April 30, 2011.[2] See Section 312(g) of the Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. Section 312(g).

[1] In the event extension of Special Temporary Authority is sought, please renew the certification in this manner.

[2] Notification of resumption of broadcast operations must be mailed to:
Federal Communications Commission
Attn: 1800B3-DW,Roonm 2-B450

Washington, D.C. 20554

The station's silent status does not suspend the licensee's obligation to comply with all other relevant Commission rules, including the filing, when appropriate, of applications for renewal of broadcast license. Finally, we note that it is imperative to the safety of air navigation that any prescribed painting and illumination of the station's tower shall be maintained until removed. See 47 C.F.R. Sections 17.6 and 73.1740(a)(4).
