Description:

Request to Extend Special Temporary Authorization
Cumulus Licensing LLC
Station WLZR(AM), Melbourne, Florida

WLZR(AM) Request to Extend Special Temporary Authorization

Cumulus Licensing LLC ('Cumulus') respectfully requests an extension of its Special Temporary Authorization ("STA") to allow Station WLZR(AM), Melbourne, Florida, to continue to operate with a temporary, wire antenna at reduced power, pursuant to Sections 73.1635 and 73.1680 of the Rules.

Station WLZR is licensed to operate on frequency 1560 kHz during daytime hours in the non-directional mode with 5 kiloWatts of power. As Cumulus reported in its original request for STA, a severe storm in early August of 2022 caused the WLZR tower to collapse. In order to get the Station back on the air, its engineers erected a temporary wire antenna. As a result, WLZR is currently operating with 100 Watts of power using this wire antenna. Cumulus and the tower owner, Vertical Bridge ("VB"), have been conferring about permanent and alternative solutions to restore licensed operation of WLZR.

VB recently filed an application with the Federal Aviation Administration seeking approval to erect a 350-foot tower to replace the tower that collapsed. Further, Cumulus ordered a polarized V antenna which, when delivered, will allow it to submit a new request for STA that proposes an increase in the Station's operating power. Cumulus engineers expect to file this alternative request in late March or early April 2023. Once the FCC acts on this alternative request, Cumulus will improve the service it provides to its listeners. Then it must wait until VB receives approval for and constructs the new tower so WLZR may resume licensed operations.

In the meantime, Cumulus respectfully requests an extension of the WLZR STA to remain on the air with 100 Watts of power utilizing a wire antenna until its alternative request for STA is filed and approved. Positive action on this Extension Request will enable the Station to continue to serve the residents of Melbourne as Cumulus and VB continue to make progress implementing alternative and permanent plans which will eventually permit WLZR to resume licensed operation.
