FORFEITURE ORDER

Adopted: June 4, 2009Released: June 5, 2009

By the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Forfeiture Order (“Order”), we issue a monetary forfeiture in the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) to Floralia Broadcasting Company (“Licensee”), licensee of Station WKWL(AM), Floralia, Alabama (“Station”), for willfully and repeatedly violating Section 73.3539 of the Commission’s Rules (“Rules”) and Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”) by failing to timely file a license renewal application.¹

II. BACKGROUND

2. On January 29, 2007, the Bureau issued a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”) to Licensee in the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for violations at Station WKWL(AM).² Licensee filed a Request for Cancellation or Reduction of Proposed Forfeiture (“Request”) on February 26, 2007.

3. Licensee’s renewal application for the Station for the current license term should have been filed on December 1, 2003, four months prior to the April 1, 2004, expiration date,³ but was not. In fact, Licensee did not file the renewal application until February 19, 2004. Licensee provided no explanation for its failure to timely file the WKWL(AM) license renewal application. On January 29, 2007, the staff advised Licensee of its apparent liability for a forfeiture of $1,500 for failure to timely file Station WKWL(AM)’s renewal application.⁴ In response, Licensee filed the subject Request.

4. In support of its Request, Licensee states that: (1) its failure to timely file the renewal application was inadvertent; and (2) it is financially unable to pay the proposed forfeiture. Licensee asserts that these reasons warrant a cancellation or reduction of the assessed forfeiture.

⁴ The WKWL(AM) renewal application was granted on January 29, 2007.

III. DISCUSSION

5. The forfeiture amount proposed in this case was assessed in accordance with Section 503(b) of the Act,⁵ Section 1.80 of the Rules,⁶ and the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement.⁷ In assessing forfeitures, Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act requires that we take into account the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.⁸

6. Licensee does not dispute that it failed to file a timely renewal application for the Station, but states that this violation was unintentional. Specifically, Licensee states that it mistakenly believed that the application was due on April 1, 2004. However, as the Commission has held, violations resulting from inadvertent error or failure to become familiar with the FCC's requirements are willful violations.⁹ In the context of a forfeiture action, "willful" does not require a finding that the rule violation was intentional. Rather, the term "willful" means that the violator knew that it was taking (or in this case, not taking) the action in question, irrespective of any intent to violate the Rules.¹⁰

7. Licensee next asks us to cancel the forfeiture "due to the Hardship Rule," claiming that because the Station is located in a small town with a median family income of less than $20,000 it has "a very small financial base with which to operate."¹¹ While it is unclear to which Rule Licensee refers, these are essentially arguments to support a claim of financial hardship. The Commission will not consider reducing or canceling a forfeiture in response to inability to pay unless the licensee submits: (1) federal tax returns for the most recent three-year period; (2) financial statements prepared according to generally accepted accounting practices ("GAAP"); or (3) some other reliable and objective documentation that accurately reflect the licensee's current financial status. Here, Licensee has only made unsubstantiated claims that payment of the forfeiture would cause it financial hardship, and has failed to provide us with any documentation regarding its finances. We find this information alone is an insufficient basis on which to assess Licensee's inability to pay.¹² Accordingly, in the absence of sufficient information to support a decision to the contrary, we decline to cancel or reduce the proposed forfeiture on the basis of inability to pay.

8. We have considered Licensee's response to the NAL in light of the above statutory factors, our Rules, and the Forfeiture Policy Statement. We conclude that Licensee willfully¹³ and repeatedly¹⁴ violated Section 73.3539 of the Rules and Section 301 of the Act,¹⁵ and that no mitigating circumstances warrant cancellation or further reduction of the proposed forfeiture amount.
