Request for Special Temporary
Authorization

Dear Mr. Reilly:

This letter refers to the May 16, 2006, request for Special Temporary Authorization ("STA") filed on behalf of Eddie Floyd Christian Radio Corporation ("Floyd"), licensee of expired FM Translator Station K273AF, Carson City, Nevada.

An application for renewal of K273AF's license should have been filed by June 1, 2005. No such application was filed, and the K273AF license expired on October 1, 2005. When the omission was brought to its attention, Floyd contacted communication counsel, who assisted him in filing a license renewal application¹ and the subject STA request. In the STA request, Floyd admits that it failed to submit a timely renewal application for K273AF, explaining that he acquired the station in 2001 and had not owned the station -- or any other FCC authorization -- during the prior renewal cycle; he therefore was unaware of the need to file a license renewal application for K273AF, and he has no recollection of receiving a notification from the Commission advising him of that necessity. Floyd requests authorization to operate the station with the same facilities as authorized by the expired license pending action on the renewal application.

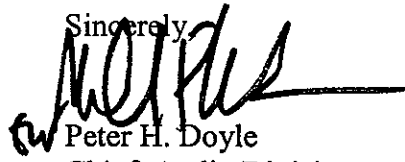

Under Section 309(f) of the Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. Section 309(f), when an appropriate application has been filed, the Commission may grant special temporary authorization if it finds that there are extraordinary circumstances requiring temporary operations in the public interest and that delay in the institution of such temporary operations would seriously prejudice the public interest. In this case, we believe that the public interest in maintaining K273AF's FM Translator broadcast service to the residents of Carson City, Nevada

Accordingly, the May 16, 2006, request for Special Temporary Authorization filed by Floyd Christian Radio Corporation IS GRANTED, and it may resume its operation of K273AF, Carson City, Nevada, with the facilities for which the license expired on October 1, 2005. This authorization will expire (1) 180 days from the date of this letter; or (2) upon action on the pending K273AF license renewal application, whichever is sooner. Additionally, grant of this authorization is without prejudice to whatever action, if any, the staff deems appropriate in light of the failure to file a timely license renewal application for K273AF.

Sincerely,

Description
EXPLANATION OF CIRCUMSTANCES

Exhibit 38
Legal STA
K273AF

Eddie Floyd, licensee of FM translator station K273AF, Carson City, Nevada, failed to file an application for renewal of the station's license on June 1, 2005, the date by which such application was due. As a result, the station's license expired on October 1, 2005, without a renewal application being pending.

Mr. Floyd is the owner of only a single broadcast property, i.e. station K273AF. He acquired the license for the station on August 14, 2001, and has not owned the station during a prior renewal cycle. Mr. Floyd has not held any FCC license prior to acquiring the license for the station. Consequently, Mr. Floyd was not aware of the need to file a renewal application for the station's license by June 1, 2005, and his failure to file for renewal was inadvertent. Although the Commission staff has advised that it sent notice of the failure to file to the station, Mr. Floyd has no recollection of receiving such notice. Upon becoming aware of the requirement that a renewal application be filed, Mr. Floyd promptly contacted counsel to obtain assistance in the preparation and filing of the application. A renewal application for the station's license is being filed simultaneously with this application.

Mr. Floyd has continued to operate the station since the expiration of its license on October 1, 2005. Mr. Floyd hereby respectfully requests that the Commission grant special temporary authority to continue to operate the station pending the processing of the license renewal application.
