PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

ONE MINISTRIES, INC., applicant for new digital LPTV stations on Ch.24, 30, 46, and 48 in Anchorage, AK, Ch. 4 and 38 in Orogrande, NM, and Ch. 2 in Monterey, CA, and Ch. 2 in Keyes, CA, herewith submits its petition for reconsideration, nunc pro tunc, of the Commission's dismissal of the above-captioned applications. In support whereof, the following is stated:

1. The instant applications were dismissed by the Commission on June 4, 2010 for failure to pay a filing fee. This petition for reconsideration is timely, being filed within thirty (30) days of the date of the Public Notice of dismissal (Section 1.106 of the Commission's Rules). The deficiency has been corrected by payment of the fees.

WHEREFORE THE PREMISES CONSIDERED, it is respectfully requested that the Commission grant the instant petition for reconsideration and return the instant application to the processing line.

Respectfully submitted,

ONE MINISTRIES, INC.
