TO: The Secretary
ATTN: Chief, Video Division
Media Bureau

PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Better Life Television, Inc. ("BLTV"), by counsel and pursuant to §1.106 of the Commission's rules, hereby respectfully petitions the Commission to reconsider the June 17, 2010 Letter Decision from the Associate Chief of the Media Bureau's Video Division in which it dismissed BLTV's above-identified applications.<sup>1</sup> The applications were dismissed because they were not accompanied by a filing fee when originally submitted to the Commission.

<sup>1</sup> Public notice of each of these dismissal actions by the Commission was published in Broadcast Actions, Report No. 47262, released June 22, 2010.

BLTV failed to pay the filing fees for these applications because it misunderstood the Commission's requirements. BLTV is a bona fide not-for-profit entity. It intends to operate the proposed stations in a noncommercial manner. Under these conditions, BLTV believed that it was exempt from filing fees for these applications. This was an innocent error made in good-faith.

The filing fees for the above-identified applications have been paid through the Commission's fee filer system. Documentation of these payments is attached. Having cured that short-coming, BLTV now respectfully asks the Commission to reinstate each of the above-identified applications nunc pro tunc. BLTV is ready, willing and eager to commence new video services to the communities proposed in these applications. The public interest will be served by processing these applications as promptly as possible and creating the opportunity for BLTV to serve those communities.

Wherefore, BLTV respectfully urges the Commission to reinstate its above-identified applications nunc pro tunc.

Respectfully submitted

BETTER LIFE TELEVISION, INC.
