Ms. Meng, I am currently working on the digital modification application referenced in your e-mail to Hossein below. The application is to modify the existing digital displacement application BDISDTL-20080310AEA channel 40, Moreno Valley, CA. I also notice that another digital displacement application has been filed and is currently pending BDISDTL-20101014ACN – channel 45. You cannot have two digital displacement construction permit active at the same time.

If the licensee wants to pursue the displacement application BDISDTL20080310AEA and before I can process the engineering analysis on the pending modification for that application, the licensee will need to request to have the pending digital displacement application BDISDTL-20101014ACN dismissed.

Thanks, Ron Graser
