Dear Sirs,

APPLICANT'S OPPOSITION STATEMENT
TO INFORMAL OBJECTION TO APPLICATION FOR
INVOLUNTARY ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSES
FCC FILE #: BALDTA - 20140805ACM

On January 20th, 2015 I advised the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") by e-mail that I had been reappointed by the New York State Supreme Court, New York County as Receiver nunc pro tunc of the FCC licenses undernoted held by Mr. James J. Chladek.

1. WPMF-CD, Miami, FL;
2. WSCF-LP, Melbourne, FL;
3. W05CJ, Key West, FL;
4. W10CQ, Key West, FL,

(Together, the "Chladek FCC Licenses").

On November 7th, 2014 Mr. Chladek filed a supplement to his informal objection ("Chladek Supplement") through his counsel, Shelley Sadowsky, Esq., relating to my application for an involuntary transfer of the Chladek FCC Licenses. The basis for the Chladek Supplement was the decision of Justice Debra James vacating her original order appointing me as Receiver of the Chladek FCC Licenses.

On February 6th, 2015 Justice Shirley Werner Kornreich of New York State Supreme Court, New York County signed an order reappointing me as Receiver nunc pro tunc of the Chladek FCC Licenses.

I enclose the Applicant's supplemental Opposition Statement to the Chladek Supplement. I also attach a copy of the court order signed by Justice Kornreich reappointing me as Receiver nunc pro tunc.

I would respectfully request that the FCC proceed with the transfer of the licenses as requested in my original application.

Yours truly,
