Dear Mr. Doyle,

We are writing in support of current management at KZYG and Z in Philo, California and are longtime supporters of the radio station.

We are aware of efforts by, and have read the arguments of, a group of people who have disagreements with the way the station is managed, and who want its license not renewed. We heartily disagree that such a strong sanction would be justified under any of the circumstances alleged, and disagree with the heart of the argument against current management. Over the years the station has weathered the usual controversies and funding challenges faced by nonprofits, with Board members spending lots of time and effort working out compromises and solutions. Plenty of us listeners and supporters are paying attention, and feel the current management has done a good job, and deserves continued support.

KZYG provides absolutely essential public services and delights a big majority of its listeners in this rural area with its programming. Please don't be swayed by a vocal minority of dissidents.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Whipple
