this letter must be investigated by the Federal Communications Commission. I would like this informal complaint to be investigated. Actually, the information contained in station had finally dropped out- except for WFMU. stations including WFMU. Several radio stations had expressed an interest, but every radio this time Pacifica Foundation Radio was contemplating entering into a PSOA with several radio the WBAI Local Station Board and also served as a member of the Pacifica National Board. At Public Service Operating Agreement with WFMU. Janet Coleman was a member of the Board of Several years ago due to overwhelming financial problems, WBAI was seeking to enter into a she would vote that Pacifica permit WBAI to enter into a PSOA with one caveat- that Janet Janet Coleman approached Ken Freedman, General Manager of WFMU. Coleman stated that Coleman be permitted to keep her broadcasting hours. This is illegal.

Ken Freedman that she would vote for a PSOA- if she were permitted to keep her programming him that I had been involved with WBAI. He confirmed that Janet Coleman had proposed to located at Union Square. This individual was wearing a WFMU shirt. I spoke to him and told individuals at WBAI. But several weeks ago I met an individual at Barnes and Noble, which is I had not reported this previously because my only sources of information had come from That is bribery and a violation of federal law.
