FORFEITURE ORDER

Adopted: October 17, 2018

Released: October 18, 2018

By the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Forfeiture Order, we issue a monetary forfeiture in the amount of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) to Alaska Educational Radio System, Inc. (AERS), licensee of FM translator stations K223BJ, Eagle River, Alaska, and K283AZ, Anchorage, Alaska, for willfully and repeatedly violating Section 74.1263 of the FCC's Rules (Rules) by discontinuing the operations of K223BJ and K283AZ on four different occasions without authority to do so.¹ In addition, we cancel that portion of the underlying Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability for a Forfeiture (NAL) that found AERS apparently liable for a forfeiture in relation to its operation of a third FM translator station DK300BY,² Willow Creek, Alaska.³

II. BACKGROUND

2. On July 18, 2018, the Media Bureau (Bureau) issued the NAL, which proposed a forfeiture in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to AERS for violations of Section 74.1263 of the Rules that occurred at K223BJ, K283AZ and K300BY.⁴ As noted in the NAL, K223BJ was off the air on three different occasions, but AERS did not notify the Commission that the translator had gone off the air or seek special temporary authority (STA) for the translator to remain silent.⁵ AERS also failed to notify the Commission or obtain permission for a period of silence at K283AZ,⁶ and a period of silence at DK300BY.⁷

² At AERS' request, Staff cancelled DK300BY's license on August 13, 2018. See Broadcast Actions, Public Notice, Report No. 49301 (MB Aug. 16, 2018).

³ See 47 CFR § 73.561(d).

⁴ Alaska Educational Radio Sys., Inc., Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture, DA 18-738 (MB July 18, 2018) (NAL).

⁵ NAL, DA 18-738, at paras. 4 and 19. K223BJ was silent from January 31, 2010, until January 30, 2011; from March 26, 2012, until March 22, 2013; and from March 26, 2013, until March 23, 2014. Id. at para. 4.

⁶ Id. at para. 19. K223AZ was silent from September 30, 2013, through September 29, 2014. Id.

3. AERS filed a response to the NAL, requesting reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture.⁸ It asserts that it was unaware of the violations set forth in the NAL.⁹ AERS also argues that the proposed forfeiture is “disproportionate” because the translators’ violations stemmed from “a single source”—silences at the translators’ primary station. Finally, AERS states that its annual operating budget was less than $1,000 for 2015, 2016 and 2017, that AERS has no liquid assets and that its “fixed assets” amount to less than $20,000.¹⁰ AERS indicates that it will provide financial statements for the previous three years by September 24, 2017.¹¹ To date, we have received no such statements.

III. DISCUSSION

4. The forfeiture amount proposed in this case was assessed in accordance with Section 503(b) of the Act,¹² Section 1.80 of the Rules,¹³ and the Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement.¹⁴ In assessing forfeitures, Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act requires that we take into account the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.¹⁵

5. We reject AERS’ argument that it was unaware of the violations and that they “would have been remedied immediately if [it] had been aware.”¹⁶ The fact that AERS was unaware of the violations does not serve to excuse or mitigate them.¹⁷ We further reject AERS’ assertion that the proposed forfeiture is disproportionate since all of the unauthorized silences stemmed from the silence of a single “originating facility.” The Commission’s records indicate that this was not the case. K223BJ rebroadcast the signal of DKABN-FM, while K283AZ and DK300BY rebroadcast the signals of other stations.¹⁸

6. Finally, we reject AERS’ claim of financial hardship. As we noted in the NAL, the Commission will not consider reducing or canceling a forfeiture in response to financial hardship unless the licensee submits: (1) federal tax returns for the most recent three-year period; (2) financial statements prepared according to generally accepted accounting practices; or (3) some other reliable and objective documentation that accurately reflect the licensee's current financial status.¹⁹ While AERS indicated it would provide such documentation, it has not done so. Accordingly, we will not reduce the forfeiture based on financial hardship.²⁰

⁹ Response at 1. AERS notes that it had filed applications to assign the licenses of K223BJ and its primary station, DKABN-FM, Kasilof, Alaska, to Kenai Cares, Inc. Id. AERS states that Kenai Cares and the attorney it shared with Kenai Cares made representations that they would provide assistance “in maintaining compliance” at these stations. Id.

7. We do, however, cancel that portion of the proposed forfeiture attributable to an unauthorized period of silence at DK300BY. We do so because, since the release of the NAL, AERS surrendered—and staff cancelled—the translator's license.²¹

8. We have considered the Licensee's response to the NAL in light of the above statutory factors, the Rules, and the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement. We conclude that the Licensee willfully violated Section 74.1263 of the Rules, and we find that there is no other basis for reduction of the proposed monetary forfeiture. We will therefore issue a forfeiture in the amount of eight thousand dollars ($8,000).
