Subject: RE: Notification re: Non-Renewal - Freeport-McMoRan Bagdad Inc. - FM Translators - K242AC, K247AC and K262AA

Mr. Gates:

I have received confirmation from my client that operations have ceased and the licenses (K242AC, K247AC and K262AA) may be canceled.

If you can advise once the licenses have been canceled in the public database, that would be appreciated.

Best regards,

Jeff Rummel

Subject: Notification re: Non-Renewal - Freeport-McMoRan Bagdad Inc. - FM Translators - K242AC, K247AC and K262AA

All:

On behalf of Freeport-McMoRan Bagdad Inc. ("Freeport"), this is to confirm that renewal of the FM Translator licenses under call signs K242AC, K247AC and K262AA will not be sought.

Please advise if any further action is required.

Otherwise, Freeport will assume that no additional action is required and that authority under these licenses will cease as of the October 1, 2021 expiration date.

Best regards,

Jeff Rummel

Subject: License Renewal Application Deadline Notice

You are receiving this email because you have been listed as an email contact for an FCC licensee of a radio station (AM, FM, FM translator, or Low Power FM) licensed to the jurisdiction for which a license renewal application is due on or before June 1, 2021 (Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, and/or Wyoming). The license expiration date for stations in these jurisdictions is October 1, 2021.

If you do not wish to renew the license for the station, you do not need to file an application, but we would appreciate confirmation that you intend to let the station's license expire as of October 1, 2021.

Please note that the application must be filed in the FCC's Licensing and Management System: <https://enterpriseefiling.fcc.gov/dataentry/login.html>. Relevant information is provided here: <https://www.fcc.gov/document/upcoming-radio-station-license-renewals>
